DIARY NOTES

25X1A

DD/S [REDACTED] SM

14 June 1963

1. Bob Bannerman and Emmett Echols were in to talk to me about employee debts in connection with Mr. Kirkpatrick's recent memorandum on this subject. They believed that the present system of cooperation between the Offices of Security and Personnel was adequate for staff employees. It might be, however, that we could tighten up on employees who are under cover. I undertook to have [REDACTED] look into this, and I asked Emmett and Bob to collaborate in the preparation of a memorandum for my signature 25X1A9a in response to Kirk's request.

2. [REDACTED] buzzed to say that Mr. McCone planned to bring up our space situation next week at the Executive Committee Meeting. Walt hoped that he would read our paper on space requirements and the request for new construction before that time. In any case, I have asked Jim Garrison to furnish me by the close of business on Monday, 17 June, a resume on where he stands on his recent explorations. 25X1A9a

3. When I was at [REDACTED] this week discussing manpower requirements, personnel there were under the impression that [REDACTED] did not count against ceiling. I told them that I thought this was an erroneous impression but that I would check it. Today I asked [REDACTED] to look into this and to give me an official report. (Harry called later to report [REDACTED] charged against ceiling.) 25X1A6a 25X1A9a

4. [REDACTED] Emmett Echols, and [REDACTED] were in to discuss with me the papers which they have prepared on early retirement. I said that the package seemed very dull reading to me and that I had not seen any examples with which they proposed to support the request. They showed me some which would help. I also telephoned [REDACTED] and asked him if he could develop two or three cases for us [REDACTED] He agreed to do so. 25X1A9a 25X1A6a

5. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning I reported that we had acquired title to the perimeter property. I also said that we didn't know what the price would be but that we had deposited $300,000 with the court, this being $27,500 more than the estimated fair market value. H
